

Camp Director

Bryan Marshall
(Girls Head Varsity Coach)

The Bellbrook High School volleyball coaching staff presents the Elite Volleyball Skills Camp held at Bellbrook High school.

The camp will be held July 26-29, and is open to grades 5-12 entering the 2010-2011 school year. The Purpose of the camp is to introduce, teach, and improve on the basic skills of volleyball. The players will be instructed in the areas of serving, passing, setting, hitting, and team offensive and team defensive systems. Each player will be involved in a variety of competitive and fun drills and games that will reinforce the skills and techniques of volleyball at the beginning and elite levels.

If you are interested in improving your skills, having fun and challenging yourself, then this camp is for you. Camp is open to any student from Bellbrook or another community.

Under the direction of the Girls' Head Varsity Coach Bryan Marshall, the camp will be staffed by former collegiate players and the Bellbrook High School coaching staff.

Included in the camper's registration fee are 4 days of personal instruction and a camp T-shirt. The fee must accompany the completed camp application.
